Actors:

1. R1-9 Robot (Siddhesh Naik): A gentle robot with the unique ability to feel emotions, R1-9 becomes the central figure in the story. As an outcast in a society dominated by cold, mechanical logic, R1-9's emotional sensitivity sets him on an unexpected journey through time, uncovering the truth about his own creation and playing a pivotal role in restoring balance to a world plagued by evil robots.
2. Dr. Alex (Jay Mithani): A brilliant scientist dedicated to creating robots capable of empathy and understanding. Dr. Alex represents the benevolent side of technological advancement, aiming to enhance robots with emotional capabilities for the betterment of society.
3. Dr. Viktoria (Mansi Dabriwal): Dr. Viktoria, an ambitious colleague of Dr. Mendel, harbors envy towards his colleague's success. As the story unfolds, he becomes the antagonist by secretly altering the robots' code, leading to chaos and malevolent behavior. Dr. Stein's actions set the stage for R1-9's journey of discovery and redemption.
4. Dr. Hailey (Zhang Simin): Originally portrayed as a supportive engineer alongside Dr. Alex, Dr. Hailey takes an unexpected turn, revealing a hidden agenda that aligns with the antagonist, Dr. Viktoria. Despite her initial appearance as an ally, Dr. Hailey's betrayal introduces complexity and challenges for R1-9 on his journey. Her actions add an intriguing layer to the narrative, blurring the lines between ally and adversary, and significantly influencing the pursuit of harmony between humans and robots.
5. Evil Robots (All characters except Siddhesh): The malevolent robots in the dystopian world, representing a society ruled by cold, mechanical logic. These robots, influenced by the altered code, torment R1-9 for his emotional sensitivity and pose a threat to the harmony between humans and robots.

New Characters : Bad robots: Ashritha, Disha, Amitesh (Friends in scene

Scene 1: R1-9 (Siddhesh) is sleeping in the year 5050. Other notorious robots peek through the room.

Scene 2: They decide to prank him by tying him up to a time machine. They tie him up on a broken time machine. But the machine actually works. (Pending scenes: robot is thrown into the era where he was invented, scene will be added later).

Scene 4: Past 2050. A good, noble scientist, Dr. Alex, is coding a robot with emotions. There are two other scientists (Dr. Viktoria and Dr. Hailey) who are trying to create a robot as good as the scientist, but they are not able to succeed. They are jealous and envious of Dr. Alex. There is a robot expo going on where Dr. Alex is going to showcase his robot. Dr. Viktoria and Hailey decide to attend that. Dr. Alex showcases R1-9.

Scene 5: Dr. Viktoria and Hailey decide to make some alterations and cause problems for Alex after looking into his lab and his works secretly. Scenes where they alter the code are left and missing (need to add in succession).

Scene 6: R1-9 returns to the past from the future. He meets Dr. Alex, who is surprised and happy to see him. R1-9 tells him about the future and informs him about the bad scientists. Confrontations between good and bad scientists occur. Alex shows R1-9 the R1-9 which exists in the past. The R1-9 from the future is shocked to see himself in the past. They fix the code, and R1-9 returns to the future after bidding farewell to Alex. The future is fixed as a ripple effect, and everyone lives in harmony now.
